Story

In a world obsessed with IPA's (Innkeeper's Pale Ale) there was a mighty gnome wizard, Alberic Hopsbeard, who delved too deeply into the world of hops which turned his brewery into a dungeon!

Alberic's quest for the ultimate IPA began with an ambitious experiment: to infuse his brew with the essence of a magical hop (Lunarbloom Mystic Hops) known only in the whispers of the oldest trees in the Enchanted Forest. This hop, rumored to grow in a hidden glade bathed in eternal moonlight, was said to possess the most intense flavors and bittering qualities, nurtured by the magic of the land itself.
